Map Search

Map search allows you to identify properties that are the subjects of applications or contraventions using an interactive map. The map allows you to zoom in and examine each property to locate the records of interest to you. You can filter the display by adding or removing record types and by changing the time period.

Alternatively, if you are interested in applications relevant to a specific geographical area, such as close to your home, you can search for records limited either to the currently displayed map extent or to a specified radius from the map's centre. These searches can be saved to your Saved Searches.

1 From the Search menu, choose the Building Control module, then select Map Search.

The initial view shows applications submitted within the last six months.

- Records which affect others (for example, neighbours or the public) are displayed as a polygon which illustrates the boundary of the property affected by the application.

Module	Record type	Displayed As

	Appeals - properties which are the subject of planning appeals.		Enforcements - properties which are the subject of planning enforcements.	Building Control	Applications - properties for which building control applications have been submitted.		Contraventions - properties which are the subject of building control contraventions.	Building Standards	Warrants - properties for which applications for building warrants have been submitted.		Notices - properties which are the subject of building notices.
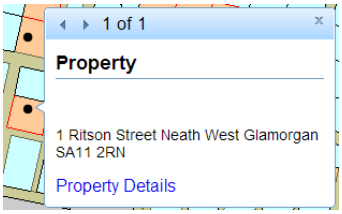
Licensing	Applications - properties for which licence applications have been submitted.		Licences - properties which hold one or more licences. 7 Once you have identified a record of interest, click on the triangle point or polygon to display a summary of the information about the record.

If there is more than one record associated with the property, you can click on the navigation arrows to page through the record summaries.

To view the full record details click on the Details link.

8 When the black Properties markers are displayed, you can click on any of these to view the property summary.



To view full details about that property, including any historical records that do not fall into the time period displayed on the map, click on Property Details.

Saving map searches

You can add a map search to your Saved Searches list in one of two formats:

- Rectangular search - saves all of the records of the selected record type that apply to the area currently shown on the map
- Circular search - saves all of the records of the selected record type that apply to the area within a specified radius of the map centre.

Note Map searches can only be saved for one record type (for example, applications) at a time. If you want to save a search for another record type in the same geographical area, you must save it as a different search.

Rectangular search

The rectangular search allows you to display occurrences of a record type over the geographical area currently displayed on the map. By re-running the search, you can monitor new occurrences. For example, if you have zoomed the map to display your town centre and filtered the legend to display building control applications in the last month you can save an extents search that allows you to monitor new applications arising in the town centre on a monthly basis.

1 Zoom and pan the map to display the geographical area of interest.
2 Select the required time period.
3 Filter the legend to display one record type.
4 Click on Save a rectangular search.
